John Wick

"John Wick" is an action film franchise that started with the release of the first film, "John Wick," in 2014.

The series stars Keanu Reeves in the titular role of John Wick, a former hitman who seeks vengeance for the death of his beloved dog, a final gift from his deceased wife.

The film is known for its stylish action sequences, intricate world-building, and a commitment to choreographed fight scenes.

John Wick

The success of the first film led to several sequels: "John Wick: Chapter 2" (2017), "John Wick: Chapter 3 - Parabellum" (2019), and "John Wick: Chapter 4" (2023).

Each installment expands on the universe of professional assassins and their unique codes of conduct, as well as the high-stakes stakes that come with it.

John Wick

The franchise is praised for its cinematography, world design, and Reeves' performance as the relentless and skilled assassin.

It has also influenced the action genre and inspired video games, comic books, and other media.

Mad Max

Max is tormented by his past, having lost his family and struggling with memories of his former life.

This emotional depth adds complexity to the character, even though much of the storytelling is visual and non-verbal.

Unlike in previous films where Max was more talkative, Hardy's portrayal leans into the archetype of the silent hero, reflecting the harsh and desolate world he inhabits.
